THE AWARD-WINNING PLAY-BY-PLAY SPORTS BROADCASTING CAMPS ARE BACK FOR OUR 11TH YEAR!

DO YOU LOVE SPORTS? Would you enjoy a career as a TV sportscaster? Have you dreamed about being a TV sports anchor or calling a last second, game-winning shot on radio or television? This is your chance to learn how to become a sports broadcaster at the nation's premier Sports Broadcasting Camp for boys and girls ages 10-18.

Our camps have been featured on NBC Nightly News with Brian Williams, NPR, PBS, The Boston Globe, Washington Post, Philadelphia Inquirer, ESPN The Magazine, The Comcast Network, among many others.

At each camp, we will:

Learn from local and national sportscasters, top athletes and coaches.

Make sports anchor and "Pardon the Interruption" tapes from TV studios.

Make play-by-play tapes of pro football, baseball, and basketball games.

Make reporting tapes from pro stadiums.

Campers will also have the chance to participate in PTI and trivia contests, sports talk radio shows, as well as Stump the Schwab, Sports Password, Family Feud and Taboo games.

Lunch will be provided.

Overnight activities include:

Attending a live Major/Minor League game.

Wiffle Ball and Basketball.

Breakfast/dinner will be served in college cafeterias.

"Just wanted to thank you for all the work you did to make the camp spectacular. Alex had a great time, learned about sportsbroadcasting, learned a lot about himself. I appreciate that he had such a good experience and is looking forward to next summer.

- Joan Crook

I first went to the camp when I was 12 and went 7 years until I started Syracuse in their TV/Radio program. Play-by-Play camps helped me become an anchor and land a play-by-play job at 18 in the Cape Cod Baseball League.
